Where to Begin the Evening

01 — 02

1

Michael Anthony's Cucina Italiana

ITALIAN · FINE DINING

37 New Orleans Road

An award-winning favorite for a reason — handmade pasta, a sommelier-built wine list, and a dining room warm enough for long conversations. Share a bottle, split the gelato, and let the evening slow all the way down.

> GOOD TO KNOW The adjoining wine bar and gelato counter stay open late — perfect for an after-dinner stroll without leaving the building.

2

The Jazz Corner

LIVE JAZZ · SUPPER CLUB

Village at Wexford

A moody, candlelit supper club where the house band sets the pace for the evening. Order an oversized martini, claim a table near the stage, and let dinner stretch straight into the second set.

> GOOD TO KNOW Tables near the stage book first — reserve a few days ahead for weekend shows.

A Little Insider Knowledge

INSIDER TIP

The Jazz Corner and Charlie's L'étoile Verte sit less than ten minutes apart on New Orleans Road. Catch an early set of live jazz, then slide into a late reservation at Charlie's — a full night of romance without moving the car twice.

WHILE YOU'RE PLANNING

Make It a Weekend

Stay just minutes from every restaurant on this list. A quiet, comfortable home base makes it that much easier to say yes to one more glass of wine.

French Charm & Lowcountry Classics

03 — 04

3

Charlie's L'étoile Verte

FRENCH BISTRO · SEAFOOD

8 New Orleans Road

Fresh Lowcountry seafood meets French countryside charm. Ask for the corner table by the fireplace on cool evenings, and don't skip whatever's on the daily specials board.

GOOD TO KNOW Ask for a window or fireplace table when you call ahead — they go first.

4

CQ's

LOWCOUNTRY CLASSIC

Harbour Town, Sea Pines Resort

A Hilton Head institution inside a historic Harbour Town building — all worn wood floors, candlelight, and seasonal Lowcountry dishes. Book a sunset table, then take the obligatory stroll past the lighthouse afterward.

GOOD TO KNOW Request a water-view seat — the sunset over Harbour Town is part of the show.

Water Views & Candlelight

05 — 06

5

Skull Creek Dockside

WATERFRONT · SUNSET VIEWS

2 Hudson Road

Floor-to-ceiling windows frame the water from nearly every seat, and the second-story Compass Rose room was practically built for anniversaries. Time your reservation for sunset — you won't regret it.

> GOOD TO KNOW Ask about reserving the second-story Compass Rose room for a private water-view dinner.

6

Chez Georges Bistro & Bar

FRENCH BISTRO

37 New Orleans Road

A true neighborhood bistro with Lowcountry touches, soft candlelight, and an aperitif hour built for easing into the evening. Intimate, unfussy, and quietly romantic.

> GOOD TO KNOW Arrive early for aperitif hour at the bar before your table is called.

For a Special-Occasion Finish

07 — 08

7

ELA's on the Water

UPSCALE SEAFOOD · MARINA VIEWS

Shelter Cove Marina

Front-row seats to Shelter Cove Marina at golden hour. Request a window table, order the catch of the day, and watch the boats drift in as the sky turns pink.

GOOD TO KNOW Request the marina-side patio for the best sunset view in the house.

8

Catch 22

SEAFOOD & STEAKHOUSE

Orleans Plaza, New Orleans Road

Fish filleted and beef cut in-house, daily. Reviewers tag this one "romantic" for good reason — quiet, polished, and built for marking the occasions that matter.

GOOD TO KNOW Not on the major reservation apps — call ahead directly to book your table.

Enjoy the island. Enjoy each other.

For reservations, call ahead — Hilton Head's favorite tables fill up fast, especially on weekends.
