Top 8 Romantic Restaurants on Hilton Head Island

Candlelit bistros, sunset tables on the water, and a supper club with live jazz — the reservations worth planning an evening around.

WHY THIS LIST

Hilton Head has no shortage of good restaurants. These eight get the small things right for a night out together: a table by the window or the fireplace, a sommelier who knows the list, a room quiet enough to actually talk.

Most sit within a few minutes of each other, and half are on the water. Call ahead — the best tables go first.

SECTION ONE

Where to Begin the Evening

1 Michael Anthony's Cucina Italiana The Award-Winning Favorite

ITALIAN · FINE DINING · 37 NEW ORLEANS ROAD

An award-winning favorite for a reason — handmade pasta, a sommelier-built wine list, and a dining room warm enough for long conversations. Share a bottle, split the gelato, and let the evening slow all the way down.

> INSIDER TIP The adjoining wine bar and gelato counter stay open late — perfect for an after-dinner stroll without leaving the building.

2 The Jazz Corner The Supper Club

LIVE JAZZ · SUPPER CLUB · VILLAGE AT WEXFORD

A moody, candlelit supper club where the house band sets the pace for the evening. Order an oversized martini, claim a table near the stage, and let dinner stretch straight into the second set.

> INSIDER TIP Tables near the stage book first — reserve a few days ahead for weekend shows.

WHILE YOU'RE PLANNING · PALMETTO PROMISE

Make it a weekend. Stay minutes from every table on this list.

A quiet, comfortable home base on Hilton Head Island makes it that much easier to say yes to one more glass of wine — and to a late reservation the next night, too.

SECTION TWO

French Charm & Water Views

3 Charlie's L'étoile Verte The Fireside Table

FRENCH BISTRO · SEAFOOD · 8 NEW ORLEANS ROAD

Fresh Lowcountry seafood meets French countryside charm. Ask for the corner table by the fireplace on cool evenings, and don't skip whatever's on the daily specials board.

> INSIDER TIP Ask for a window or fireplace table when you call ahead — they go first.

4 CQ's The Harbour Town Institution

LOWCOUNTRY CLASSIC · HARBOUR TOWN, SEA PINES RESORT

A Hilton Head institution inside a historic Harbour Town building — all worn wood floors, candlelight, and seasonal Lowcountry dishes. Book a sunset table, then take the obligatory stroll past the lighthouse afterward.

> INSIDER TIP Request a water-view seat — the sunset over Harbour Town is part of the show.

5 Skull Creek Dockside The Sunset Reservation

WATERFRONT · SUNSET VIEWS · 2 HUDSON ROAD

Floor-to-ceiling windows frame the water from nearly every seat, and the second-story Compass Rose room was practically built for anniversaries. Time your reservation for sunset — you won't regret it.

> INSIDER TIP Ask about reserving the second-story Compass Rose room for a private water-view dinner.

SECTION THREE

Candlelight & Special Occasions

6 Chez Georges Bistro & Bar The Neighborhood Bistro

FRENCH BISTRO · 37 NEW ORLEANS ROAD

A true neighborhood bistro with Lowcountry touches, soft candlelight, and an aperitif hour built for easing into the evening. Intimate, unfussy, and quietly romantic.

> INSIDER TIP Arrive early for aperitif hour at the bar before your table is called.

7 ELA's on the Water The Golden-Hour Table

UPSCALE SEAFOOD · MARINA VIEWS · SHELTER COVE MARINA

Front-row seats to Shelter Cove Marina at golden hour. Request a window table, order the catch of the day, and watch the boats drift in as the sky turns pink.

> INSIDER TIP Request the marina-side patio for the best sunset view in the house.

8 Catch 22 The Occasion Dinner

SEAFOOD & STEAKHOUSE · ORLEANS PLAZA, NEW ORLEANS ROAD

Fish filleted and beef cut in-house, daily. Reviewers tag this one "romantic" for good reason — quiet, polished, and built for marking the occasions that matter.

> INSIDER TIP Not on the major reservation apps — call ahead directly to book your table.
